

Curriculum Vitae

Iacopo Prissinotti

CURRENT POSITION

Name of company

ENAV S.p.A

Job position

Head of International Strategies

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Iacopo Prissinotti started his career in the Italian Air Force as ATCO and joined ENAV in 1985. He worked as operational ATCO till 2000.

From 2004 to 2006, he was responsible for Strategy and scenarios, office expected to design and develop ENAV core business promotion strategies.

In 2006, he was appointed Head of the ENAV International Activities Office, in staff to the Director General, with responsibilities in the coordination of all ENAV international projects, cooperation initiatives and the participation to European and International Bodies and Organisations.

From 2012 Head of International Strategies, reporting to ENAV CEO, with responsibilities on all the international initiatives, also as Board member of important international programmes (e.g. SESAR Joint Undertaking, Aireon, General Meeting of Member of the SESAR Deployment Alliance).

EDUCATION AND TRAININGS:

- 2013 Course in "Driving corporate performance: aligning scorecards, system and strategies"
HARVARD SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS (Boston, USA)
- 2006 Course in Negotiation Skills
Centro Studi Nazionali CISL – FIESOLE (FI, Italy)
- 1992 Radar Control course
ENAV Academy (RM, ITALY)
- 1985/6 Air Traffic Control Officer course
National Military Aviation Center (AMI) – Pratica di Mare (RM, Italy)
- 1985 AMI officer cadet course

EXTRAS:

Listening to jazz music, running.