

SESAR Young Scientist Award

Calling young scientists: Applications open for SESAR Young Scientist Award

Are you a young scientist undertaking research in the field of air traffic management (ATM) and aviation?
Are you looking for the perfect opportunity to showcase your talent?
If yes, then look no further... the SESAR Young Scientist Award is designed for people like you.

The SESAR Young Scientist Award 2018 (YSA 2018) aims to recognise young scientists with high potential contributing to the scientific research in the field of air traffic management and aviation. In addition, the award also provides a mechanism for further personal development and visibility.
The winner of the SESAR YSA 2018 will be presented with a financial reward and trophy at the SESAR Innovation Days in Salzburg during the week of 3-7 December.

The winner will also be invited to present their research at other aviation research events and have an opportunity to profile themselves on the SESAR JU communication channels - an exciting opportunity for future job seekers to showcase their talent in front of the global ATM community.

Who can apply?
