- Processor: Legal Affairs & Procurement Sector, Administration Affairs.

How is SJU processing the personal data?

The data collected is processed either manually or electronically.

- When processing manually, the submitted offers (which may contain personal data, as specified above) are stored in the legal archives until the opening session. Then, they are made available to the duly appointed members of the opening committee and the members of the evaluation committee, who evaluate the offers against criteria defined in the call documentation. Upon termination of the evaluation process, the Legal sector recovers all copies of the tenders and stores them in the Legal archives.
- When processing electronically, the electronic versions of the offers are available to the evaluation team through a dedicated, restricted area in IDMS<sup>8</sup> where they are also saved after the evaluation process.

How do we protect and safeguard your information?

Data are stored:

- Electronically in specific areas of IDMS with restricted access rights
- Paper files are stored in archives, locked and only accessible to the Legal Sector

In both cases, access and control rights to the files are limited and granted only on a need-to-know basis.

Who has access to your information and to whom is it disclosed?

For the purpose detailed above, access to your personal data is given to the following persons:

- Authorized staff from the EU bodies in charge of monitoring and inspection tasks in accordance with European Union Law (e.g. European Court of Auditors, European Anti-Fraud Office, etc.) or to the competent national courts in case of dispute arising between the contracting parties;
- EUROCONTROL: personal data might be transferred to in the context of EUROCONTROL internal audit operations<sup>9</sup>;
- Designated SJU staff members (Legal & Procurement and Financial team, evaluators and/or contract managers);
- Members of the public: only in case of contract award by a natural person, the information concerning in particular the name and address of the winner, the amount awarded and the name of the project or programme, will be published in supplement S of the Official Journal of the European Union (<http://ted.europa.eu>) and/or on the website of the SJU (www.sesarju.eu);
- Directorate-General of Budget of the European Commission: Financial Identification Form<sup>10</sup> and Legal Entity Form<sup>11</sup> of the winner are transferred to the European Commission in order to be included in the third party file of the ABAC System for electronic transactions.
- Early Warning System (“EWS”)<sup>12</sup> and the EDES when appropriate and provided that the conditions in Art. 135 of the Financial Regulation are met.

What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

The procedure to grant rights to data subjects is laid down in the Implementing Rules concerning SJU Data Protection Officer<sup>13</sup>. These include:

- Access to the DPO's register of data processing operations;
- Requests from data subjects to the Data Controller to exercise their rights; as well as
- Detailed procedures to exercise the rights to access, rectify, erase, block, object, notify to third parties of any rectification, erasure or blocking and not to be subject to a decision which produces legal effects concerning him or her or significantly affects him or her and which is based solely on automated processing of data intended to evaluate certain personal aspects relating to him or her, unless such decision is expressly authorised pursuant to national or Community legislation or the European Data Protection Supervisor (as required by articles 14-16 of the EU DPR Regulation).

Possible restrictions as laid down in Article 25 of the EU DPR Regulation can apply, based on the assessment conducted on a case by case analysis, in particular where it is necessary to safeguard the rights of the data subjects and/or the rights and freedom of others.

For how long the data is retained?

- Maximum retention period for files relating to tender procedures:
  - In case of successful (awarded) tenderers: all personal data related to the management of the procurement procedure and the service contract is to be retained at the SJU premises for a period of 7 years following the signature of the contract, or until the dissolution of the SJU, whichever is earlier. Only original documents are stored, copies are destroyed.
  - In case of unsuccessful tenderers: the personal data of unsuccessful tenders is kept in the archives for a period of 7 years following the signature of the contract with the successful tenderer. The copies are destroyed.
  - Data is also retained until the end of a possible audit if one started before the end of the above periods.
  - Maximum retention period for extracts from judicial records is 2 years.

After the periods mentioned above have elapsed, the tender files are destroyed.
